

Mile builder May 8 - 2021

Dear client,

Due to your interest in our mile builders, we like to inform you that we are open for bookings.

Hereunder you find the route for the mile builder starting on Saturday the 8th of May 2021, we allocated 5 yachts for this event.

The second mile builder will take place in October 2021, and we will inform you shortly, this mile builder will be going to the Cyclades.

Every yacht has a Yacht master offshore instructor as the skipper, with Alexandros as the chief instructor, he will also be responsible for the daily briefings.

The watch system divided in two watches, will be set up in cooperation your skipper before departure. The dedicated watch leader will be fully in charge during his watch.

The off-duty watches are responsible for preparation of meals, and cleaning the yacht

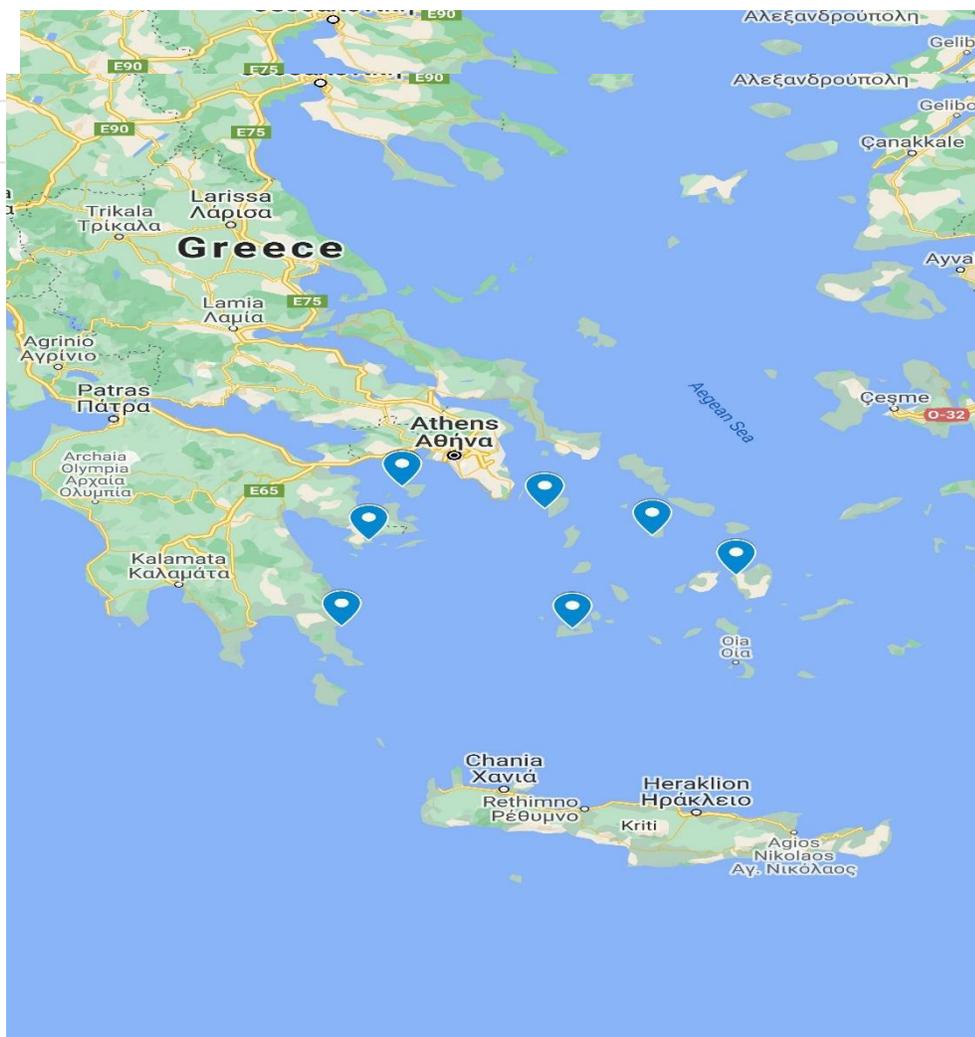

When off-watch you can choose whether you relax, sleep, or learn. The skipper and co-skipper can help you to improve your knowledge of navigation, radio work, GPS, and other aspects of sailing. We will provide each yacht with some guidebooks to the area and there is plenty of interesting information in the pilot books you will have on board.

You can also practice your radio skills and have some basic instruction in marine radio operation.

All the skippers are qualified Marine Radio instructors. You can also practice your radio skills and have some basic instruction and practice in marine radio operation. We can arrange radio examinations in Aegina at the end of the trip. Please let us know if you want this.

We will supply all food needed for the trip, only extra cost for you are the evening meals and drinks ashore, there will be no alcohol on board, but a glass of beer or wine while in port is no problem.

The price per person for this event is Euro 1.150,00 in a single cabin, if shared with a good friend, or partner you will save Euro 125.00 per person.

Sat 8 May : Aegina to Kea in the northern Cyclades. The yachts will aim to leave at 15:00 finishing with a night sail. 40nm.

Sun 9 May : Kea to Syros, the island that is the capital of the Cyclades. 50 – 60nm.

Mon 10 May: Syros to Naxos, the largest and arguably prettiest of the Cyclades, where you can look around and eat in the evening the streets of the old town. 30nm

Tue 11` May: Naxos to the volcanic island of Milos, via other islands. 60nm

Wed 12 May: Day off to explore Milos and see the wonderful beaches and interesting rock formations. Mooring practice for those who prefer to do sail drills. L Leave in the evening for an overnight sail to Monemvasia on the Peloponnese. 84nm

Thu 13 May: Day off to explore Monemvasia with its beautiful Venetian walled city and castle. Sail to Ermioni through Hydra Channel, passing by Dhokos. 45 nm

Fri 14 May : Ermioni to Aegina where you will spend the night on our 'home island'. We can arrange visits to the Temple of Aphaia. 35nm

Depending up the wind direction you may sail further than the distances above in order to reach your destination, but the total distance covered is likely to be around 370 nautical miles.

Do not forget your logbook. So your skipper can sign of the milage covert during the trip.

As of November 21th, we only have 5 cabins left, we did book already 14 cabins!!!

Hope to see you all soon,

Kind regards,

Andrew
